These readers have been written with rich vocabulary including embedded words that contain suffixes. Discuss the use of suffixes for changing the meaning of words and the spelling rules applied. The text consolidates earlier taught phonics skills and tricky words.

Careers Day

“Sid, today is going to be a great day!” said Pip. She claps her hands. “Why do you say that?” asks Sid. “Because it’s careers day at school, of course,” she said.

“What would you like to be when you grow up?” asks Pip. “I have no idea, this is not going to be a great day,” said Sid. Sid hung his head low. Pip gave him a hug.

“I can help. Let’s start talking about what interests you. What do you like doing? What are your hobbies?” asks Pip. “Well..... I love animals. I love playing the guitar. I like riding my bike. I like watching TV,” he said.

“That’s a great place to start,” said Pip.
“Really? What can I do that combines animals and playing my guitar?” laughs Sid.

“We should focus on one thing at a time. How about training to be a vet? A vet is someone who loves and cares for animals,” said Pip. “I’m not sure about giving animals injections. I hate needles,” shrugs Sid.

“Being a vet is so much more than that. Vets give x-rays. Vets fix broken bones. Vets teach people how to be good pet owners. They might even play their guitar for their patients,” said Pip. “Some vets work on farms or at the zoo. That could be exciting,” grins Sid.

“You will be an amazing vet one day,” said Pip. “Go on, give it some thought and talk about this for careers day,” said Pip. “Thanks Pip. I feel better about it already. What would I do without you,” smiles Sid.
